ABOUT THE AUTHORITY

The Camden County Joint Development Authority was established in 1981 by joint resolution of Camden County and the Cities of Kingsland, St. Marys, and Woodbine. The Authority was created in accordance with the Georgia Development Authorities Law and is governed by a nine-member board appointed by local governments. The mission of the Authority is to promote Camden County to business and industry, to expand and diversify the economy, and stimulate the creation of quality jobs for the benefit of citizens.
